SECRETARIES NOTES.

Congratulations to Sharron and Alec Dalgleish's Whippet Harerunner Hill Sprinter, for going Best in Field for the June & July meetings. These two meetings ran very well, with a very healthy entry. The July meeting was run by Keith Harvey driving the lure, as I was tied up from Friday until the Sunday running a demonstration Lure course for the Salukis at the Festival of Falconry at the requested of the Arabian Saluki Center.

I arrived at Falkland as usual at 8am, to set up for the day before going at 10am to Reading. It was 8.45 before any one else turned up. This has got to change unless I get the help setting up early I will call it a day after the October meeting.

You need to organise a team of members to take over the BSFA as soon as possible. You also have another problem in that Falkland Farm can no longer accommodate the club after 2010, as they need the land to be managed better for their growing Aberdeen Angus herd.

You, the club members, need to find a Secretary, Treasurer and a team to set-up the meetings each month. This needs to be done NOW, so that I can inform you what needs to be done. Someone who can look after and re-charge the batteries after each meeting, people to drive the lure and Judges to find for each meeting. If you do not organise yourselves now soon there will be NO BSFA and your Hounds will not be able to enjoy their day out running free chasing a plastic bag around a field.
