Here is your first Newsletter of the new season.

We had a challenging but very enjoyable meeting in March, which was further enhanced by dry weather and a little sun in the afternoon. It was very much a learning curve for your new committee. There were over 80 dogs entered and numerous trials. Despite some technical difficulties all dogs managed a run. We think the running of dogs in breed groups worked well and will be continuing this practice for future meetings. We hope that any difficulties and disagreements on the day will be forgotten as we move into the new season. Your committee is determined to put right any problems which arose.

Congratulations to Sarah Layfield for achieving Best in Field with Winterfellin Hells Belle on her first meeting. It was certainly worth the long journey from Halifax! Congratulations also to all the Best of Breed winners and Best in Class winners.

Special thanks must go to Andrew Dawes for his sterling efforts to keep our generators going across the whole day. Special thanks also to Sue Spring - Arnold for entering the results on the laptop from the judging sheets. This is a task that few realise is vital to the event and involves sitting in the horsebox for long periods slaving over said hot laptop.

It was really good to have our Australian friends with us. Thanks to Susan McDonald who braved the cold of an English March morning to judge for us, along with her friend Christine Stevens, who are both involved with Queensland Lure Coursing. They gave us a DVD of their club lure coursing in Australia and it has provided a couple of useful ideas which we hope to be able to introduce into our meetings.

Can we remind members of the need to enter your dogs well in advance of the meeting and send payment with the booking as late bookings and payment on the day will no longer be accepted. This eliminates a great deal of work on the day and helps to keep things running smoothly.

It is also important to avoid walking on the patch of ground to the right of the gate as you drive in to the field. This is a crop that the farmer uses for his horses. We hope he will rope it off for the next meeting.

Can we also remind you to please bring raffle prizes to meetings since we no longer have our traditional source of prizes available. Please be as creative as you can be in your donations. We found last year that things like home-made produce and plants etc. went down very well. We do rely on our raffle for the additional funds to pay for our other new innovation - mobile toilets - which we hope members will appreciate.
